WYOMING

Mrs. M. H. Teets was the guest of Peoria relatives over Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hewitt went to St. Louis Friday evening to spend several days.

Clark Arganbright, of Indiana, is the guest of his numerous relatives in this city and vicinity.

Mrs. Marlan Klock and Mrs. E. C. Wing and daughter are home from a stay of several months in Arkansas.

Miss Grace Fullerton, of Salem, Ill., has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. C. McMackin, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartz and son went to Peoria Saturday and returned in their fine new seven-passenger Cadillac.

Miss Helen Tucker and brother Walter, of Brimfield, spent several days the past week with their Wyoming relatives.

Mrs. C. S. Wrigley, Mrs. G. S. Rakestraw, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Reeder and Mrs. George Church were Peoria visitors Saturday.

The secondary engine and dynamo at the electric light plant are now in position and ready for use when emergency calls.

The Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church recently organized, will hold its first meeting at the parsonage on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Bernice Hoover has gone to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives in the hopes of regaining her health, which has been impaired of late.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Voorhees are parents of a daughter, born April 17. Mrs. Emily Voorhees, of Kewanee, is assisting in the care of her new granddaughter.

"The County Fair and Country Store" under the auspices of the ladies of the Ideal Club will be given in the Opera House Thursday evening of this week, and promises to be an evening of pleasure to all.

The body of the eighteen-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. Colwell, of Sparland, was brought to this city last Friday afternoon. The funeral was held from the M. E. church Saturday afternoon and the body interred in the Wyoming cemetery.

The school election in both districts was held Saturday afternoon and in the South Side district was out in full force there being nearly 400 ballots cast. The ticket elected was J. W. Fling, Jr., president; R. J. Teeter and E. Arganbright, members of the board.

The Missionary Society of the Congregational church meets with Mrs. T. W. Cox on North Seventh street, Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. D. D. Martin leads the devotionals, and the afternoon's program with the subject "Pilgrims of Today" will be in charge of Mrs. G. F. Earhart.

Mrs. Lydia Williamson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Thurston, in Pleasant Valley, Friday morning of last week after an illness of many months, during which she was a patient and uncomplaining sufferer. She is survived by Mrs. Thurston, her only child, and one grandson, an adopted son, and several sisters and brothers, besides a wide circle of friends. The funeral was held from the Pleasant Valley church Sunday afternoon at 2.30 and was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Rees. The body was laid to rest in the church yard nearby.

The members of the Ideal Club and their husbands were most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Teets, on North Seventh street Wednesday evening of last week, Mesdames W. H. Faulk and G. F. Earhart assisting. The party took the form of "An evening in Holland," and the garb of the hostesses, decorations and entertainment provided, were in keeping with "the Dutch." It goes without saying that the evening was filled with fun. The closing feature was a genuine Dutch lunch, into which all participated. The guests regretted when the hour arrived for departure bringing to a close another of the pleasant social evenings for which the Ideal Club is noted.
